7. Design of Website

Font Strategy (Typography):

Our website uses a "Pairing" technique. This is when we use two different fonts to create a professional contrast. Headings (h1 - h6): We used "Playfair Display". It is a Serif font (has small "feet" on letters), which feels elegant, luxurious, and trustworthy—perfect for a travel agency. Body Text: We used "Poppins". It is a Sans-Serif font (clean and geometric), which is very easy to read on mobile screens. The "Highlight" Concept: We likely have a class like logo- highlight.

Logic: By wrapping one word of our logo in a , we changed its color to teal (#2a9d8f) to make the brand name memorable. Design Principles (Visual Style)

Our design follows a Clean & Modern aesthetic. Color Palette: We used a high-contrast palette.

Primary Teal (#2a9d8f): Represents nature and water (travel vibes).

Secondary Coral (#e76f51): Used for buttons. Since it's a "warm" color, it catches the eye and encourages users to click "Book Now."

Depth (Shadows): Classes like shadow-md use box-shadow.

Viva Point: "We used subtle shadows to create a 'Layered' look, making the travel packages look like physical cards sitting on the page."

Interactivity (Transitions): We used transition: all 0.3s ease.

Logic: This ensures that when a user hovers over a button, the color change is smooth, not instant. Layout Structure (The "Skeleton")

You used two of the most powerful modern CSS tools to organize your page:

A. CSS Grid (Main Layout)

Use: Used for the "Packages" or "Gallery" section.

Concept: grid-template-columns: repeat (3, 1fr).

Logic: This creates three equal columns. If you add a 4th package, it automatically drops to a new row, keeping the layout perfectly aligned.

B. CSS Flexbox (Navigation & Headers)

Use: Used for the Header and Footer.

Concept: Display: flex with justify-content: space-between.

Logic: This automatically pushes our Logo to the left and our Navigation links to the right, leaving perfect empty space in the middle regardless of screen size.

C. The Container Pattern

Class: .container

Logic: We set a max-width: 1200px and margin: 0 auto.

Why: This prevents website content from touching the very edges of the screen on large monitors, keeping the information centered and easy to read.

8. Conclusion

The Dream Travel Agency Website project successfully fulfills its objectives by providing a clean, user-friendly, and informative travel platform. The website helps users explore destinations, select travel packages, and contact the agency easily. This project also improves our understanding of website design, navigation, and professional documentation.
